96. Sri M. H. JAYAPRAKASH NARAYAN (Sirsi).—

Will the Chief Minister be pleased to state :—

(a) the number of departments of Government now existing in the stage;

(SRI M. H. JAYAPRAKASH NARAYAN)

(b) the numbe of depatrments that have framed Cadre and Recruitment Rules and the numbe rof those that have ot yent framed C and R Rules and the reason for not faming the same.;

(e) the ratio allocated for direct recruitment and promotion in each category of post in the departments that have framed C and R Rules;

(d) whether they have made provision in their C and R Rules to implement the Direct Recruitment Rules of the Government by providing 52 per cent Other Castes, 30 per cent B.C., 15 per cent S.Cs. and 3 per cent S.Ts ?

Sri D. DEVARAJ URS (Chief Minister).—

(a) 73.

(b) Cadre and Recruitment Rules for all the departments except the following Ten Departments have been framed. The reasons for not framing them so far are indicated against each :

1. Special Commissioner's Office, New Delhi and 2. The Mysore Bhavan, New Delhi :—These offices were started in 1964-65 and till their set up was established in the light of experience, C and R Rules could not be framed. They have however now been framed and will be finalised.

3. Director of Indo-Danish Project :—The project was taken over by the State Government from the Danish Authority during 1970 and C and R Rules are being framed.

4. Film Unit Department :—Since this is a temporary department, no C and R Rules were framed, However the department is presently drafting the C and R Rules.

5. Home Guards and Civil Defence Organisation :—The draft C and R Rules of the department have been framed and are under consideration of the Government.

6. Drugs Contol Department :—The C and R Rules of the department have been framed and are under consideration of the Government.

7. Department of Text Books :—This department was created during the year 1969 and is still a temporary department. The question of framing the C and R Rules will be examined after a decision is taken about its future set up.

8. Department of Pre-University Education :—This department was created in the year 1971. The question of constituting a statutory board for Pre-University Education is under consideration.

9. Marketing Department and 10. Weights and Measures Department :—The C and R Rules of these departments are in the process of being finalised.

(c) The ratio varies from one category of posts to another and from one depatment to another. The particulars of each category of posts are available in the printed volumes of C and R Rules kept in the Legislature Library.

(d) Reservations for SCs and STs and Backward Classes are made in accordance with executive orders issued by Government in pursuance of Article 16 (4) of the Constitution. The C and R Rules only provide for the method of recruitment and the qualifications for each category of posts. Rule 9 (1) of the Mysore State Civil Services (General Recruitment) Rules which are applicable to all departments provides that in all cases of direct recruitment, vacancies shall be reserved and filled by members of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other Backward Classes to such extent and in such manner as may be specially provided for in the rules made for that purpose.
